TIBURON HOSTS 23rd ANNUAL WINE FESTIVAL Saturday, May 13, 2006

Tiburon, Ca.: - The Tiburon Peninsula Chamber of Commerce will host their 23RD Annual Wine Festival on SATURDAY, May 13, 2006 from 1pm - 4:30pm at Point Tiburon Plaza, adjacent to the Tiburon waterfront.

The first important event on the San Francisco Bay Area wine tasting calendar, the Tiburon Wine Festival will feature wines from 71 California wineries, food, live music by Cosmo and a silent auction of library edition wines and art. Because of the festival's popularity it has grown one third larger this year with more wineries and many more food booths.

"Our festival is a wonderful opportunity to sample and compare premium wines in one of the most beautiful locations on the San Francisco Bay", said Steve Sears, co-owner of Sam's Anchor Café and Chairman of the event.

Cost is $35 in advance and $40 day of the event. For advance tickets call the Chamber (415)435-5633; fax (415)435-1132; e-mail tibcc@sbcglobal.net. Or www.ticketweb.com.

Guaymas, The Caprice, Servino's, Sam's, Sweden House - five of Tiburon's most popular restaurants plus Gaylords of Sausalito, Willy's of Kentfield, 3rd Degree, The Melting Pot, cheese booths, breads, barbecued sausages and pate plus others will all be serving samples.

Some of the wineries pouring include Jordan, Chalone, Honig, Handley, Graziano, Rosenblum, Mazzocco Winery, Rodney Strong and many others.

The enlarged silent auction which will feature large-format bottles this year not generally available to the public plus some fabulous art work. The auction which will be held from 1pm to 3:30pm. For more information call (415) 435-5633 and check website
